

IDENTIFYING WATER TURTLES

 Florida Red-bellied Turtle SHELL: smooth; high rounded; color varies (red coloration on top if shell not too mossy); highest in middle, widest at rear; rear margin smooth NOTES: males have longer claws & tails MAX. LENGTH: 15"	 Chicken Turtle SHELL: finely wrinkled, net-like pattern of yellowish lines; noticeably longer than wide NOTES: neck almost as long as shell when extended; broad yellow band on front legs; many fine lines on neck; black & yellow vertical stripes on tail and things (striped pants) MAX. LENGTH: 10"
 Peninsula Cooter SHELL: smooth; rounded but not domed; color varies (yellowish to orange markings on top if shell not too mossy); front highest then gradual slope to rear; rear margin toothed MAX. LENGTH: 16"	 Striped Mud Turtle SHELL: three light stripes run lengthwise down top of shell; noticeably longer than wide NOTES: two light stripes on head, top one over eye (shown), second from eye down MAX. LENGTH: 5"
 Yellow-bellied Slider SHELL: rough, slightly knobby; margin slightly toothed; yellow bars on each side NOTES: "striped pants" but no broad yellow line on front legs like chicken turtle MAX. LENGTH: 11.5"	 Florida Mud Turtle SHELL: brownish overall - no color patterns on shell; smooth; noticeably longer than wide NOTES: stripes on head so faint they probably won't be visible MAX. LENGTH: 4.7"
 Snapping Turtle SHELL: flat, squat; small "teeth" on back part of shell pointing to rear NOTES: wide head, hooked beak; three saw-toothed ridges lengthwise on top of tail; not a basking turtle MAX. LENGTH: 19"	 Stinkpot (Musk) Turtle SHELL: dark brown to black; high NOTES: conspicuous fine yellow stripes along head and neck MAX. LENGTH: 4.5"
 Florida Soft-shelled Turtle SHELL: soft, leathery, pliable; flat appearing; shells of young brightly colored but frequently darken with age NOTES: snorkle-nose MAX. LENGTH: 24"	ACCIDENTALS Red-eared Turtle: bright red patch on each side of head. MAX LENGTH: 11.5" Map Turtle: low flat shell; net-like pattern of yellowish lines & circles resemble streams on map; prefers rivers and large bodies of water. MAX. LENGTH: 10.75" Alligator Snapping Turtle: three prominent knobby ridges on back of shell, large head; not usually found south of panhandle. MAX LENGTH: 29"